Notice no. 25-24/ 55

Date- 03.04.2024

Notice

As notified earlier all the classes on offline mode for both UG & PG will remain suspended till the Lok Sabha Election 2024 is over. The faculty members are not required to attend the college in person during this period of suspension of offline mode classes. However, all the faculty members are to take initiative compulsorily for online classes for both UG & PG courses. They have to attend online classes for all Semesters following the existing routine of each Semester during the regular college hours. Furthermore, it is mandatory to take the attendance of the students in Google Form for each class and it is to be submitted to the undersigned. This attendance record will be considered for Internal Evaluation of the students.

Online classes will be held for the period from 05.4.2024 (Friday) to 06.6.2024 (tentative). Faculty members are requested to take utmost care for regularity of arranging online classes with advance notice circulation among the students by all means. Kind cooperation of the faculties to the students can only motivate the latter for joining online classes.
